

International Travel Grants for U.S. Teachers and Principals

Are you interested in short-term travel abroad or hosting an international teacher or principal in your school/community?

Under the Educational Seminars Program, the U.S. Department of State and American Councils for International Education announce a competition for educators from the United States to participate in a professional exchange program with one of the following countries:

Teacher Exchanges

Greece
India
Italy
Thailand
Uruguay

Principal Exchanges

Argentina
Brazil
Jordan
Mexico
Thailand
Uruguay

The 2010 Uruguay-United States Educator Exchange program offers two options for potential collaboration. Please note: one option has a December 7, 2009 deadline. Please visit <http://www.americancouncils.org/program/48/USEEP/> for additional information about the Uruguay program options available.

Each program is fully funded and provides: travel and accommodations to Washington, D.C. for a pre-program orientation; international travel and accommodations; and program tuition if applicable.

Please see country-specific application for complete details and guidelines
